Garson & Associates Co., L.P.A. Celebrates its 30th Anniversary

The Cleveland-based law firm of Garson & Associates Co., L.P.A. celebrated its 30th Anniversary on April 30, 2006. On this day thirty years ago, Stuart I. Garson began practicing law as an associate in a Northern Ohio law firm. His practice areas included personal injury, workers' compensation, criminal defense, and domestic relations. Two years later, Mr. Garson became a principal in the firm and started to manage it as well. In 1984, Garson bought out a retiring partner and renamed the firm Garson & Associates Co., L.P.A.

Today, Garson & Associates has expanded its legal practice to include: personal injury, workers' compensation, medical negligence, wrongful death, product liability, social security disability, and business litigation on a contingency fee basis. Garson & Associates lawyers frequently handle cases referred by other attorneys, as they are highly experienced in their practices. Garson's trial attorneys average 3 to 4 jury trials per attorney per year. Likewise, Garson's workers' compensation attorneys average over 1,000 hearings a year on behalf of their clients. The firm employs attorneys who are specialists in their fields, who are members of the Ohio Academy of Trial Lawyers, and have received an A-V rating by Martindale-Hubbell.

The law firm's original offices were located in the Engineer's Building on the corner of Ontario and St. Clair in downtown Cleveland. When that building was to be razed to make way for the Marriott Hotel, Garson moved his offices to the historic Rockefeller Building in February 1989, where the firm now occupies the 16th floor.

Garson & Associates has become a leader in Ohio's legal community, representing and advocating on behalf of injured or damaged consumers, workers, their families, and business owners. The firm is at the forefront of a number of professional and civic organizations. During his tenure as managing partner of Garson & Associates, Stuart Garson has received numerous honors and recognitions for his professional and civic contributions including: selection as an Ohio Super Lawyer™ by his peers; recipient of five special achievement awards from the Ohio Academy of Trial Lawyers; recipient of the Park Synagogue Centerite Award 2001; and induction into The Workers' Compensation Hall of Fame of the Ohio Academy of Trial Lawyers in 2003 and the Orange High School Hall of Fame 2001.

"The pursuit of justice is the business of every responsible citizen," stated Stuart Garson, Managing Partner of Garson & Associates Co., L.P.A. "This is the foundation of an orderly, just, and lawful society. At Garson & Associates, this is what drives our efforts on behalf of the tens of thousands of clients we have represented in the past thirty years," added Garson.
